Investment Guide

I specialize in intimate, sexy and elegant boudoir fine art portraiture.

I am passionate about creating photographs that are romantic and elegant. I love what I do and having fun is what I strive for my clients.

Intimate / Boudoir photography means different things to different people. My goal is to create an atmosphere where you are able to feel comfortable in your own skin. To love who you are. It has little to do with your body shape, size or the clothing you wear.

It's all about your attitude and I strive to empower women to feel good about themselves!

Please let me know of any questions you may have. I look forward to working with you!
